

Seminarios sobre Doctrina Social de la Iglesia

Desde Guatemala, Joseph Keckeissen nos informa (en inglés) sobre sus seminarios sobre Doctrina Social de la Iglesia y economía de mercado en la Auburn University y en la Asociación por la Educación en la Empresa Privada, en los EEUU:

PAPERS GIVEN DURING 2008

AUBURN, ALABAMA, MISES SCHOLAR'S CONFERENCE March 13-15 2008

Seminar on Catholic Social Doctrine

The objective of this Seminar is to clarify some erroneous views of Catholic Social Doctrine and to emphasize the requirement that libertarian philosophy must be always subordinated to the principles of morality.

Joseph Keckeissen, Moderador Universidad Francisco Marroquin

Papers presented:

William Luckey, Christendom College

“Starting Over: The Rebuilding of Catholic Social Teaching on Economics”

Armando de La Torre, Universidad Francisco Marroquin

“Acceptable and Unacceptable Criteria Regarding Themes of Social Doctrine”

Gabriel Calzada, Instituto Juan de Mariana

“Limiting the Prerogatives of the State: by the Scholastic Juan de Mariana

“How the economic principles of the Late Scholastics Influenced the Thought of Continental Europe” (on file)

Roberto Blum, Universidad Francisco Marroquin

“The Common Good from a Christian Point of View”

Juan Jose Ramirez, Universidad Francisco Marroquin

“Defence of Those Social Norms That Protect Authentic Human Dignity”

Discussant Thomas E. Woods

ASSOCIATION FOR PRIVATE ENTERPRISE EDUCATION

LAS VEGAS April 6-8, 2008

Moderator Joseph Keckeissen, Universidad Francisco Marroquin

Papers presented:

John Larivee, Mount St. Mary's University

“The Worker Question Today: The Subjective Dimension of Work When Humans are the Ultimate Resource”

Joseph Burke, Ave Maria University

“The Fundamental Welfare Theorems and Natural Philosophy”

Gary Scott, Intercollegiate Studies Institute

“Discovering and Upholding the Moral Purpose of Education in Pluralist Markets”

Armando de La Torre, Universidad Francisco Marroquin

“Acceptable and Unacceptable Criteria Regarding Themes of Social Doctrine
(Dr. DeLaTorre arrived ill at Las Vegas and was unable to present his paper)

Roberto Blum, Universidad Francisco Marroquin

“The Common Good from a Christian Point of View”

Walter Hernandez, Universidad Francisco Marroquin

“Libertarian Principles that Antedate Modern Liberalism Proposed by Scholastic Churchmen”

Moris Polanco, Universidad Francisco Marroquin

“Safeguarding the Environment by Market Forces”